

Real Community Banking

Here to stay at 103 Wolf Road

(across from the Hannaford shopping plaza)

People were surprised to see that we were the #3 commercial mortgage lender in the region in 2019, according to a recent issue of the Albany Business Review.*

What is real community banking?

The Bank of Greene County has practiced its grass roots style of banking for over 130 years. We help people and businesses manage their finances online and at convenient branches throughout the Capital Region. Unique products, competitive pricing, philanthropy and homegrown talent help us engage—and stick with—the communities we serve. Our company is structured to ensure it can never be taken over by another bank. Real community banking—it's all we've ever known.
